From the MNSC Offices:

Our annual meeting is scheduled to be held Tuesday, March 8 at 11:30 a.m. and we hope you will join us to participate in the voting of new members and give a fond farewell to those leaving the board.

Both Carl Henn and Mattie Watson have served two terms on the Board and will be leaving for a well-deserved rest. Mattie has been an active member who, many times, brings a different perspective to the group – tempering them to make the right decisions. Carl continues to edit the newsletter and helps identify new press opportunities where we can spread the good word on MNSC. Whether he is listed or not, he will always be an active member!

Many of you have served on our Board of Directors at one time or another and are familiar with the many responsibilities the position holds. As we continue to look at our future and what we need to do to continue to grow and serve our senior community, the decisions made at this meeting will be most important.

We look forward to seeing you all there on the 8th!

Jeff Linnan, Executive Director

New Member Cards:

With the great help of Jo Pannell, we have updated and combined our current Member and Emergency Cards to make it easier to assist in times of need. Please take a moment to ask the registration person or someone in the office for a new card and complete it for us. It helps keep all of your information current and accessible in cases of emergency.

Shepherd's Center Book Club

In March, The Road to Character by David Brooks provides an opportunity for readers to rethink their priorities and focus on deeper values that should inform their lives.

Five Presidents: My Extraordinary Journey with Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, and Ford by Clint Hill will be the club's April choice. Retired Secret Service agent Clint Hill brings history to life with this rare and fascinating portrait of the American presidency.

Beginning in March, the MNSC Book Club will be holding their meetings in the Library on the second floor of North Church. Please join the group on Wednesday, March 1 at 1:15 p.m. for lively discussions of the month's selected book. All books are readily available at the Indianapolis Public Library.

The house was a mess
I frankly confess
With trash all over the floor.
The new preacher came
And put me to shame
I'll bet he won't come anymore.

A most unusual girl was Marie
She insisted on pepper in tea
Spread mustard on cake tops
Ate onions with gumdrops
Some remarkable fancies had she!

Happy Travelers

The Happy Travelers will be touring Second Helpings on March 24. It is located at 1121 Southeastern Avenue. If you would like to drive on your own, we will be gathering there at 10 a.m. If you would like to ride the church van we will leave North Church at 9:30 a.m. The cost for the ride is $5.00. Lunch will follow and it is a free will offering. Please sign up by March 15.

Future trips involve a guided tour of Some Tippecanoe Historical Home in April, the Underground Railroad Museum and the Viking artifacts at the Cincinnati Museum in May, Auburn Duesenburg Museum and Wilbur Wright birth home in June, and the Belle of Louisville luncheon cruise in July. More details will appear in the April Edition of Voices as well as announced at our weekly luncheons.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Debbie Hinderliter at 317.674.6482.

Great Decisions & More - April Line-Up:

With April just around the corner, we have the "starting line-up" of our Great Decisions Programs. They promise to be better than ever and include:

April 12: "U.S. Foreign Policy & Petroleum"

Scott Pegg

April 19: "Trade Policy"

Phil Powell

On April 26, we will be hosting a community event relating to Senior Healthcare Fraud co-hosted with the Indiana Association of Area Agencies on Aging, the Secretary of State, AARP, the Attorney General, and several other organizations. This will be a full two hour event.
